Walk carefully up the narrow lane signed 'Cleeve Hill Golf Club'. With the club house on your right, cross a cattle grid onto Cleeve Common and turn immediately left.

At a road junction, take the footpath on the left (Cotswold Way) into a field and walk downhill to a kissing gate. Go through and turn right onto a tarmac drive, passing a cricket ground Passengers are advised the bus stops are request stops. Please clearly indicate to the driver your intentions to alight.

Park in Back Lane car park and exit via the steps into Cowl Lane to the centre of the town.

In Abbey Terrace turn right and follow the pavement for 100 metres. Cross the road and catch the Marchants service bus 606 or W2 to Cheltenham from the War Memorial.

Alight at the Golf Club bus stop at the summit of the B4632 road.

Follow the path to a gate leading onto a tarmac drive B. Turn right and follow this driveway through a farm (note the alternative footpath to your right for use when the cattle enclosures hold livestock).

Where the track turns right, continue ahead through a gate on the left into a field and follow the footpath beside the fence to a footbridge. Cross the river and bear right uphill. At the top, on your left. At a road junction turn left and in about 250 metres, at a 30 mph sign, turn right (signposted Cotswold Way).

Follow the path to a road; turn left, over a bridge and then right at the top of the short incline to return to the War Memorial on Abbey Terrace.
