Golf Club'. With the club house on your right, cross a cattle grid onto Cleeve Common and turn immediately left.

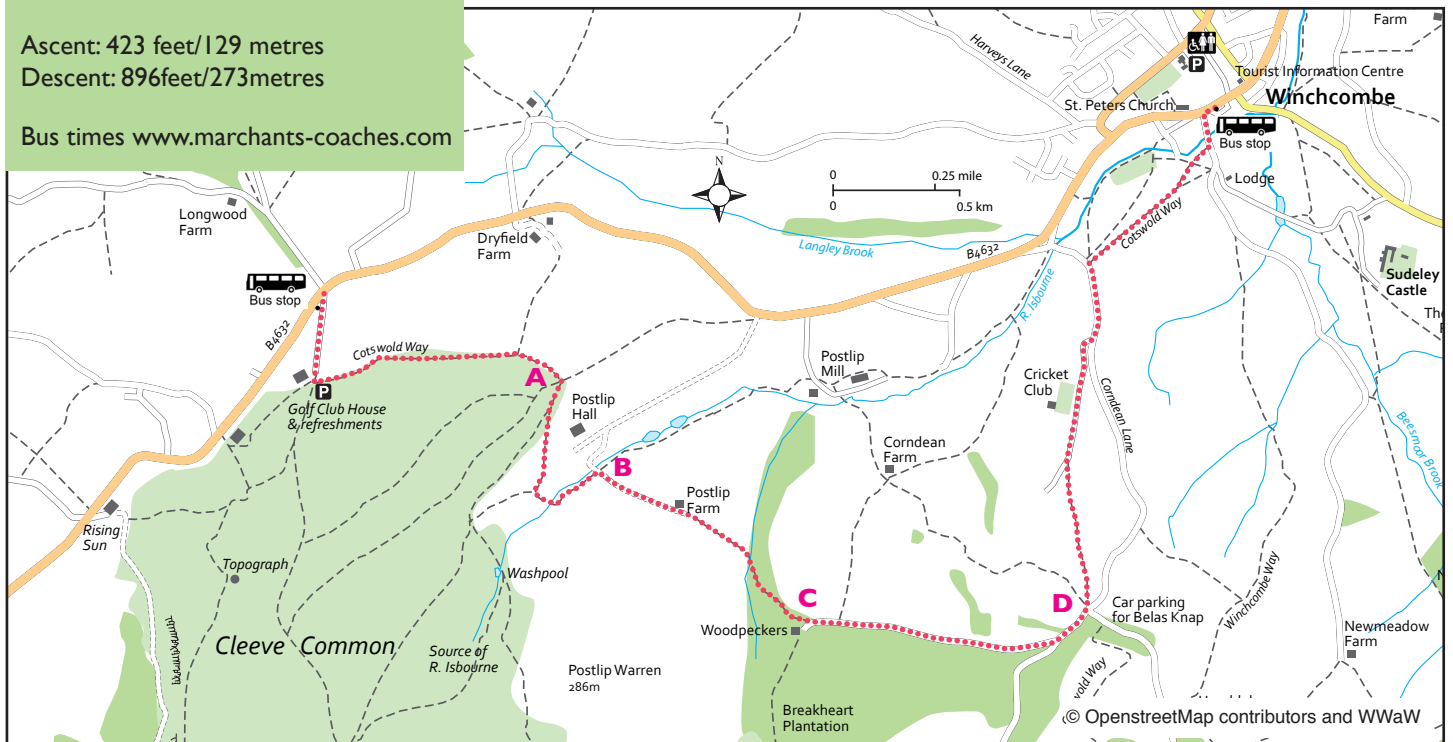

Keep ahead on the track, pass through one gate to reach a second gate A. Here pass through and bear right downhill on the track, taking a left fork in about 250 metres to reach a gate. Pass under overhanging trees to a small stabling area. Keep to the footpath and pass through gates and between buildings, skirting Postlip Hall to your left behind a high stone wall.

Follow the path to a gate leading onto a tarmac drive B. Turn right and follow this driveway through Postlip Farm (note the alternative footpath to your right for use when the enclosures hold livestock).

Pass Corndean Hall, down to your left until reaching a T-junction D.

Follow the path through two gates to meet a road. Turn left and go over a bridge spanning the River Isbourne and up to a

Park in Back Lane car park and exit via the steps into Cowl Lane to the centre of the town. In Abbey Terrace turn right and follow the pavement for 100 metres. Cross the road and catch the Marchants service bus 606 or W2 to Cheltenham from the War Memorial.

Alight at the Golf Club bus stop at the summit of the B4632 road. Walk carefully up the narrow lane signed 'Cleeve Hill
